ATTRACTIVE OFFERINGS ON THE STAGE AND THE PHOTOPLAY SCREEN

HARRY LAUDER PAYS HIS ANNUAL VISIT

Scotch Comedian Wins New Friends and Thrills Old Ones at Walnut

Walnut-Sir Harry Lauder, again returning to this city, did all those things last night which have won him o vast host of friends and have made bim almost unique as a comedian.

Among the things he did were Sing his famous "Doughie the Baker" song, with its accompanying solliloguy on matrimony and firting with one's neighbor's wife.

Don a sailer suit and remier a catchy chantey entitled "There Is Somebody Waiting for Me.

Bring out the crooked stick that the new one called "Bella, the Belle of repertoire, "She's Ma Daisy."

Sing 'Wee Hoese 'Mang the ance which it received by the company. Beather' as requested by the halcons. It is not an opera at all in the med-He has done all these things before-many, many times—but that doesn't ve the people on the other side of cotlights a little lecture on friendthe footlights a little lecture on friend-which are eternal in human life to ship and the ability of a song to keen make it intensely interesting as well as one's spirits up. Then he obliged with exceedingly apropes. another song, and finally, in order to get the people out of their sents, he set the people out of their sents, he led them all in the national anthem.

In addition to this infectious exponent of heather humor there were other acts to please all tastes. Gintare, a Japanese, did some wonderful things with a top and a pile of blocks; De Pace proved a real wizard at making the mandolin talk; Winonn Winter used a real personality in putting across her songs and added some ventriloguism for good measure; the Brothers Gaudford for good measures are good measures and good measures are good measures are good measures and good measures are good measures and good measures are good measur amith did tumbling with two elever dogs, and Unitah Masterman imitatel countless birds by her adept whistling.

Nixon-"Boys of Long Ago"

part in the proceedings with good rettle play is a delight to witness and ults. And then there are Lyons and hear. osco, undoubtedly the best musical act. The music is evidently based upon Gustave von Se vaudeville, often referred to as the British. Scotch and Welsh folksong and remarkable cast. the finish. Meredith and his dog Snoo-

Keystone-Ford Revue

There are lots of whole-ome laughter pany in an exciting sketch proved a Peachum and Celia Turrill as Lucy comedy riot. Other good acts were Lockitt. The dancing was characteristically Jack Goldie and Cooper and the of the day and was very gracefolly Inck Goldie and Cooper and the of the day and was very gracefully. The film attraction is in and beautifully performed. the Days of Buffalo Bill

Globe-Bob Nelson

Bob Ne'son, former Winter Garden (48) star, is the headliner of this week's but at the Globe and delighted audiences at yesterday's performances. Nelson is singing comedian of well worth heaving. Herbie Hewson assists him at the plane. Other at-

Walton Roof-Big New Show Violet Carlson, late of the "Spice that Sweatman and his synce of 1922" and known as the "miles Charlton and Tate, singing come prima-donna," was an outstanding hit in a number of new songs which represent a cycle of music. She has an ingratiating manner which is a big william Penn—Comedy.

phia Industrial Association has arranged a "scientific night" program, to be given in Morrison Hall, Northeast High School, Eighth street and Lehigh ave-nue, this evening. It will include a redio talk and demonstration by E. P. Edwards, manager radio department, General Electric Company, and several

Tarn."

This will be the first of a series of two special evenings arranged by the club for its members and friends, and the second will be given in the same the second will be given in the same the second will be given in the same that the two special evenings arranged by the club for its members and friends, and the second will be given in the same place on October 24, at which time Commander H. C. Richardson, U. S., the pilot commander of the NC-3. which was one of the fleet of airplanes which made the first official trans-

Shows That Remain

GARRICK — 'Rain." with cast headed by Jeanne Eagols.

8HUBERT—"Hitchy Koo of 1922." with Raymond Hitchcook, Brendel and Bert, Jack Pearl, Audrey Maple and others.

FORREST—"Sally." with Marilyn Miller, Leon Errol and Walter Catlett heading the cast.

ADELPHI— "The Demi-Virgin." with Hazel Dawn, Bobby Watson, Peggy Coudray, Glenn Anders and Ahce Hegeman.

BROAD—"The Czarina," with Doris Keane. Keane.

LYRIC — "The Rose of Stamboul," Viennese operetta, with Marion Green, Tessa Kosta and James Barton.

"THE BEGGAR'S OPERA"

First Musical Play in English Revived Triumphantly at Metropolitan

"The Beggar's Opera." the first of a long line of more or less worthy suc-Prince of Wales gave him and sing a cessors in the line of musical comedy. was revived at the Metropolitan Opera House last evening before a fair-sized Make all the old-timers happy by audience, which was charmed by the out of the door, and her sympathy is bringing back that old favorite of his novelty and quaintness of the work, as well as by the very excellent performthe ance which it received by the company.

ern sense of the verd, but it is a prevent their appreciation by all the scattling sactive muon the politics, the Lauder-lovers and they are legion. His criminal laws, the administration of winning sadile, his fainty during steps, justice and the music of that day, And, the hideous face, and a Russian exiety his still charming voice, his rolling at that a lot of it applies right now to burre all of these still stand him in conditions as they exist in this country. To find those jewels.

| Begin | Regent | Rege good stend. Last night, with the sweat. Some of the sattre was an matters which rolling down his cheeks, he gave his exist now only in detailed history, and very best, and the audience gave him much of this was necessarily lest upon its usual generous response. the audience, as it must be upon any Finally, called out many times, he audience in this country. But there was ever, does not burt the action, which is

The musical numbers are interpolated for the finale just as they are in the modern musical. To see Lio play, without any apparent reason. Many of them are evidently parodies the persons in public life, which are indicated by the characters in the play. have long since passed even out of history, but they are funny enough to stand on their own merits. The dia-To say that it's a whole show in it. logue is clever and shows strikingly self is just about right in speaking of the public toward the conventions has "Two Boys of Long Ago." the feature not materially changed in the last 200 attraction. Comedy, music and nerosystems. While the types depicted have batics are mingled harmoniously in a largely passed away in England and consistent theme, which is highly enter- never existed in this country, still they saining. Tom Ward plays a prominent are so convincingly represented that

The music is evidently based upon simply short and charming songs, with an instrumentation which must follow to a considerable extent the orchestral resources of those days.

The company was nitogether excel-In the show which makes it a good in-vestment in entertainment. The Max Ford Revue with Vera Hayworth and Penchum, Charles Magrath as Lockitt. Minna Ravin is the feature attraction.
It is enlivened with many original lines and situations, and the music is above the ordinary. Laughs keep apace of the skit offered by McLinn and Sulin miled.

Alfred Heather as Filch, Lena Mair.

Peachum, Charles Magrath as Lockitt, and the revealed output.

For this reason, then, it might seem ries, This variety of composers and of the various kinds of technique and interpretation was perhaps more severe this Henning Berger story, in itself in its demands upon the performer than skit offered by McLinn and Sulin miled. and situations, and the music is above and all of them good comedy action; the ordinarys Laughs keep apace of the Alfred Heather as Filch, Lena Maitskit offered by McLinn and Sully, called Jordan as Filch. Lena Mairpany in an exciting sketch proved a pany in an exciting sketch proved a comedy riot. Other good acts were comedy riot.

Fay's-"Pepper Box"

This week's program is one of the "The Pepper Box Revue." a tabloid musual merit and pleased audiences at musical comedy which featured the bill at Fay's. Ash and Franks offered some evidenced by the heavy susterday, as sparkling comedy singles. evidenced by the hearty applause given Alex Sparks and company appeared in the various accs. Yvette and band, a a skit which won much laughter and specific density applicable. singing, dancing and violin novelty, applaues on account of originality. The heads the bill, with Homer Dickinson Gladiators offered an interesting acro- and Florence Tempest, mustcal comedy batic exhibition: Ralph and Reese stars, as close contenders for that honor. A "School Day" act Jennings and Mazier, blackface conceditus, and Gold, singing and dancing, complete the program. The moving-picture feature this week is House Peters in "Rich Men's Wives."

Cloba Sch Males. presented by an exceptionally elever

> Nixon's Grand-Claire Vincent A true-feel'ie story told in of merit and is teptionally good cast makes the sketch to Herbie Hewson of Clairs Vincent and Company a plane. Other of worth-while offering. Miss Vincent has tractions this week include David Sab. the kames of getting real value out of losky's skit. "The Kid From Madrid," every line and wish her contorkers sas-with Jimmy Gilden and Jay and Doro, tains interest until the thiss. Therethe Headship II. thy Hendricks: "The Country Store," was action every moment in the misked a rural musical country, also aids pep to the show. Four other acts complete to the show. Four other acts complete the program.

Walton Roof—Big New Show

Hall Dale and Company. The music was especially entely. Hen Marks and Holly Wilson presented travery in your with 1922 ideas with good research acts and program. turns. Other good acts included Wil-bur Sweatmam and his synconairs. Charlton and Tate singing comediums. . Daces Brothers, clown acrounts, and

Broadway-Fay Marbe Personality plus a pleasing vone and the combination printic style enabled Fay Marks to scare a decisive hit. She offered several new songs in Edwards, manager radio department.

General Electric Company, and several motion-ricture subjects, including "The Revelations of the X-Ray."
The Light of a Race" and a "Woolen Tarn."
This will be the first of a series of There is a thrill every few and an abundance of consistent action.

Atlantic flight, will describe his experiences and will also show several reels of Government films describing the week's program, and proved a decided week's program, and proved a decided hit. Other acts on the bill inclinic the mentioned first are the most important Four Fantimes, aerial wonders; Law characters. The victim is Bebe Dan-Wilson, comedy rongs and chatter; lels, who dies at the end. She is ex-Four Fantimos, aerial wonders; Lew characters. The victim is nobe Dansers to the attractiveners of the sering pictures—of famous folk of image in such animon measure in the Rotories Section of the Sunday Public Section

LIONEL BARRYMORE IN YEAR'S BIG THRILLER

"Face in the Fog." With Punch From Start to Finish, Tops Stanley Bill

Stanley - For sheer entertainment. from start to finish, without let-up, the palm, so far this year, must be handed to "The Face in the Fog." which is one the Boston Blackie crook stories. In all the beetle years of the films, we never remember having seen a better SCORES GREAT SUCCESS thriller, and the best part of it all is that "The Face in the Fog" is acted by a matchless cast and is mechanically almost perfect.

> The opening scene shows New York on a very forgy evening in spring. We see a gay restaurant, its lights shroude y the moist curtain. There is an old beggar standing in front of the door. Boston Blackie, reformed crook, and his young wife who did the reforming come aroused by the beggar's plight. ment later, a hideous, misshapen face appears out of the fog, and the beggar is struck dead with his own crutch. All this, however, comes after the mendy cant has slipped into Boston Blackie's eket a handful of jewels.

The entire action of the story transpires in a single night, in fact, within t few hours, with only one "cut-back, in story torm, to Russia. This, how simple the films have achieved in ages. There is a thrill in the opening scene, and a surprise punch with a laugh in a span for a change, as Boston Blackie is something of a rare treat. With a twinkle in his eyes and a smile hovering on his line, the Boston smile hovering interesting throughout. To see Lionel Barrymore, spick and on fits lips, the Barrymore of this pic-ture is quite different from that of "The Copperhead" and "Boomerang Bill." We can think of no part in all the annals of filmdom demanding that snave and calculating calm (necessary for erooks or, in this case, ex-crooks) which has been half as well played. George Nash is a bully foil as the recognized as a Russian grand duchess, but her ability to act is still with her. And that "face in the fog," sinister, hideous, menacing, is played by our one every and only 'Hairy Ape' in a vidainous appressible that is quite remarkable for its evil spirit. The fight he and Barry- devot

In forgy New York streets and lamp-lit, perfect execution, as was of course to Russian alleys too much credit cannot be expected, and with a fine poetic megalists; Arlone Johnson, singer of be be towed. "The Face in the Fog" is feeling which was never allowed to something that all the fans should see drop into the merely sentimental as is Carmen, ingenue and others. There was and enjoy. It's real stuff.

that average output.

allowed to penetrate to the screen. are caught in a water-tight compartnent under a saloon when a flood inunlates the town. For twelve hours they face prospective death, and reportance. mostly of the psalm-singing kind, strikes them. The Brotherhood of Love comes to them in the hour of their peril; and we are led to believe that they are reformed characters. Then the flood recedes and the skies brighten, and the come up from their refuge. Are they purified and repentant souls? Not so yet could notice it. Just one out of those eleven persons is changed for the better: the others immediately revert to their former characteristics. James Kirkwood is the one reforme! Other excellent numbers were Bostock's singer and he gives his usual singer Riding School and Lillian St. Leon and and notable performance. Richard Dix company in "How Circus Riders are is not so satisfactory in a weaking Mane." This, as usual, scored with is not so satisfactory in a weather the kiddles. Madge Diamonds, noted pole. Helene Chadwick gives one of the the kiddles. Madge Diamonds, noted most striking pieces of acting in the net, and James Clemons and company, most striking pieces of acting in the musical comedy bits, scored big hits. nest striking pieces of neung in musical comedy bits, scored big intere, and camed characterizations in musical comedy bits, scored big interest in musical comedy bits, scored big interest in musical comedy bits, scored big interest big big i Karr and Ralph Lewis as pieces of

Even though the subtleties of cliniaca miysis cannot be put perces on reen as they were intended to in story, and even allowing for a emersions to popular screen tradi-The Sin Flood' is a powerful and effective screened document, me classically, almost perfectly done.

Aldine Kindred of the Past another of those very entertaining but entirely pointless out-of-door yarns that love to find their way to the serven. Peter B. Kyne wrote it, and when he writes the fur files and the red blood flows. The fans will not consider money badly spent if they go to see it. The locale of the plot is the shore of Pager Sound, which also is a logging resent a cycle of nuste. She has an ingratiating manner which is a big asset in her offering. One of the big wallops of the show is the art of the Moscon-Dixon Seven, a septette of nusterians from the Southland, and they put their neighbors are sent their neighbors are sent their neighbors are sent their neighbors are sent the number of the which leaves nothing lacking. Real autumnal surroundings add to the joy lazz as the Syncopated Seven: Max Bloom and Alice Sher offered a conneity skit which scored decisively. Gordon attention on the majustic drama of nature.

To tell the plot of "Kindred of the lazz of the plot of "Kindred of the lazz of the plot of the plot

General Electric Official to Address
Foremen's Club This Evening
The Foremen's Club of the Philadel.

The Foremen's Club of the Philadel.

The Foremen's Club of the Philadel. port that Ralph Graves makes an ex-cellent hero, that W. J. Ferguson quite steals the acting honors in one of his inimitable character roles and that Miriam Cooper is a restrained and modest heroine.

> Arcadia-A tale of the diamond mines which is disjointed in the first part, but melodramatically effective tothe end is disclosed in "Pink which Penraym Stanlaws of Gois," one of whom falls a prey to the lure of the flashing stones, and one who resists the lure. There is no real hero, although the part that James Kirkwood plays is that of a rough-and-ready bully and roustabout, who "Dummies." a miniature musical diamond smuggler, and Adolphe Menjon with a big cast, is the feated Barriett. Is a dapper and smiling village cast. trick mustache, who uses the diamone lure to attract women. The two women

Photoplays Elsewhere

STANTON — "Manslaughter," fea-turing Thomas Melghan and Leat-rice Joy.

PALACE—"The Masquerader."

VICTORIA — "Monte Cristo," with John Gilbert, Estelle Taylor and Robert McKim.

CAPITOL — "The Ghost Breaker," with Wallace Reid starred, sup-ported by Walter Hiers and Lila-Lee.

ported by Watter Hiers and Lita Lee.

IMPERIAL—"A Fool There Was," with Lewis Stone.

COLONIAL—"The Ghost Breaker," with Wallace Reid.

GREAT NORTHERN—"Rich Men's Wives," with House Peters, Claire Windsor, Myrtle Steadman, Rosemary Theby and Gaston Glass.

ALHAMBRA—"Above All Law," MARKET STREET—"Men of Zanzibar," with William Russel.

LOCUST— "A Tallor-Made Man," with Charles Ray,

LOCUST — "A Tailor-Made Man," with Charles Ray.

NIXON'S AMBASSADOR — "Cameron of the Royal Mounted," with Gaston Glass.

BELMONT— "The Valley of Silent Men," with Lew Cody and Alma Rubens.

RIVOLI — "One Clear Call," with Henry B. Walthall, Milton Sills and Claire Windsor.

STRAND — "The Ghost Breaker," with Wallace Reid, Lila Lee and Walter Hiers.

SIXTY-NINTH STREET — "Valley of Silent Men," with Lew Cody.

LEADER — "What's Wrong With the Women?"

COLISEUM — "Her Gillded Care" the Women?" "Her Gilded Cage."

with Gloria Swanson.

CEDAR — "Delicious Little Devil," with Mae Murray.

JUMBO — "There Are No Villains," with Viela Dana.

Regent - Another of Rex Beach's and protected and finally married by an older man. When the young chap returns to beguile her there is trouble. Kay Laurel, a more or less new face on the screen, is admirable as the heroine, and Russell Simpson and Rob-ert McKim are both splendid as her

MME. SAMAROFF'S RECITAL

Plays Before Immense Audience In Academy In Forum Series

Mme. Olga Samaroff gave the first of a Forum musical affairs in the Acad
The Forum musical affairs in the Acad
In a nutshell, a corking good show. the Forum musical affairs in the Acad-George Nash is a bully toll as the forum musical affairs in the Acad-Secret Service man who knew Blackie in his unregenerate days; Macey Harlam is Ivan, a Russian villain; Lowell of a piano recital. The auditorium was Sherman, immense as another Russian crowded to its utmost limit, every sear so often the case with the modern inter-

Karlton—"The Sin Flood" is a pic"time that is definitely different from the average screen output. Furthermore, it is decidedly head and shoulders above the average in looks and ability. "The Isle of Adventure" is in two acts and six scenes, and possesses a score of tuneful musical numbers in it is decidedly head and shoulders above the average in looks and ability. "The Isle of Adventure" is in two acts and six scenes, and possesses a score of tuneful musical numbers are also a chorus above the average in looks and ability. The Isle of Adventure" is in two acts and six scenes, and possesses a score of tuneful musical numbers are also a chorus above the average in looks and ability. arrangement of the Ride of the Valky-Howed to penetrate to the sercen.

Eleven distorted and warped souls splendid manner in which Mme. Sama-special feature that pleased, and the regular in a water-tight comparts splendid manner in which Mme. Sama-special feature that pleased, and the refl interpreted the different com-large cast included "Fat" Hamilton. roff interpreted the different com-She was obliged to give two encores, playing Kreisler's "Tambourin Chinois" for the first and a nocture by Grieg for the second.

Orpheum-Jack Wilson

Willie Ward were in the cast of "A afl of them attractively and elaborately Nonsensical Revue." which pleased as staged. Charlie Goldie, a Philadelphia a headline feature. The comedy goes boy, was the chief comedian, and the at a rushing page, giving little time prima donna was Bertha Delmonte, who dark Wilson, Charles Forsythe and a rushing pace, giving little time prima donna was Bertha Delmonte, who thought. George Kelly offered "The could both sing and exert a potent per- 1130-1144 Ridge Ave., Phila. woff," a sprightly new comedy. company in "How Circus Riders are Mane." This, as usual, scored with the kiddles. Madge Diamonds, novelty with a locale in Millbourne, and a cast Bert and Sue Kelton, in music and attraction: Emmett Welch had new dameing. "Rich Men's Wives" was the film fenture. On account of its true-darky comedy and stories. The first of Console

The

Vogue

Art Models

EDDIE FOY AND KIDS TOP FINE KEITH BILL

MAE DESMOND'S RETURN

Toy, in "East is West"

Ask Your

Druggist for Mineralava

Beauty Clay

Get Your Home Wired

Including fixtures of rare beauty and charm of design and quality by our wonderful organization.

Established 19 Years

Originators of our own distinctive and flexible Financing Plan which insures to cash customers equitable saving as compared with the de-ferred plan.

WHALEN-CROSBY

After You Lock Up-

What then? Do you leave the cash you've collected after banking hours to a possible pilfering by burglars? Make sure by making a deposit every night. We are

REPUBLIC

TRUST COMPANY

1429 Chestnut Street

HOURS 9AM-10PM

open until 10 P. M.

Comedian and HIs Family Are Given Big Welcome on Return Here

Keith's—Eddle Foy need never worry of the company, as well as to the star, about the sort of reception he will get when he comes to this city. Indeed, he appealing and the rest of the characters has come to be regarded almost as one of Philadelpria's favorite sons. And whenever, during the last few years, he has brought along the six younger Foys, he's been just that many times more welcome.

The irrepressible Eddie and his

The irrepressible Eddie and his youngsters are the headliners at Keith's this week, where they're being kept busy answering encores. They're all huddled together in a snappy little playlet in which dad appears as Martin Connelly, the cab driver, and the youngsters are—well, they're just his

Each of the youngsters has an indiwould prove highly interesting. They sing and dance and do some clever bits of acting and, of course, Eddie, Jr., does his usual imitation of his clever dad. Imitations of the elder Foy have become quite frequent in yaudeville. But become quite frequent in vaudeville. But there has never been a take-off done as well as Junior gets it over.

David Schooler has a clever singing and dancing act that demonstrates to Regent — Another of Rex Beach's Alaskan yarns finds its way to the screen in "The Brand," which tells of a young wife descreed by her leusband, and protected and finally married by an
When the young chan re-

Johnny Burke in "Drafted" has a monologue stunt that gets a laugh a minute, William and Taylor have a dancing surprise that really surprises because of its unusual cleverness. Harry Wal. 4360 4561 140 N. 11th St. 1850 4862 Open Every Evening Except Saturday because of its unusual cleverness. Harry Moore does some interesting stunts as a paper manipulator. Lois Bennett has a sweet voice and she sings some attractive numbers. There are a bunch of cleverly trained dogs and ponies and a mule in Madam Jean Berzac's Circus, an act the youngsters surely enjoy. Yost and Glady are French importations, who do clay modeling in a way that's CASINO'S "RADIO" SHOW At the Casino last night, "The Radio exile, heroic instead of villations for a change. Seena Owen can hardly be program, which was as well selected as it was performed, was received with every evidence of delight and thorough producer, Sim Williams, and is well selected as it was performed. hideous, menacing, is played by our one and only 'Hairy Ape' in a vilianous style that is quite remarkable for its evil spirit. The fight he and Barrymore stage is almost a screen classic. Mario Majexoni, Mary McLaren and the stage in A flat, the necturne in F sharp, the etude in the same key and the has done excellent work. The sharp, the etude in the same key and the has done excellent work. The sharp, the etude in the same key and the program was a company, composed mainly of extended and the containing the famous funeral march, being headed by Billy Gilbert, an eccentric comedian, and including Cleora, acteristic interpretation of the great a classical dancer: Emma and Bobby wilson, singers and dencers. Guth In vaudeville, often referred to as the tameo of that kind of entertainment, has been "brought up to date" in a trace and McBride started laughs early manner which cannot give offense to the most fastislious. There is no vocalization and moved them faster as they reached the finish. Meredith and his dog Snoothe finish finish. Meredith and his dog Snoothe finish fini also a chorus above the average in looks > Trocadero's New Show Trocadero-"The Jolly Girls," which opened last night, turned out to be a fast-moving and attractively staged Jack Know, Rene Vivienne and Josie Fountain.

"Pepper Pote" at Bijou Bijou-Moe Messing's "Pepper Pots, with seven principals and a chorus of eighteen, opened with a bang last night. There were two acts and eleven scenes Travesties at Dumont's of capable funmakers headed by Charlie Boyden, get every bit of comedy out of the amusing situations. George Fredo a capable musical artist, was a side attraction; Emmett Welch had new

"The Longer You Play It, the Sweeter It Grows" nishings.

Cheney Sales Corporation, 1105 Chestnut St.

ERIOD furniture, in vogue for a Especially have Console tables won the favor of many who take great pride in the refinement of their home fur-

See and Hear

CHENEY

Regular Models - $115 - $275

Console Models - $250 - $1275

Dealers Everywhere

number of years before the war, is today more popular than ever.

to-life scenes this story appealed to part had some unusual features of en-

The Quaker Faucet with its single swinging nozzle gives more work room in the kitchen sink. The handy soapholder is another feature. It keeps the cake firm and dry. Your plumber can furnish this.

HAINES, JONES & CADBURY Co.

Plumbing and Heating Goods *******************

The CHENEY All Models Easy Terms MYERS F. HALL Germantown

INC.

OF the three great Louis styles in interio decoration, that of Louis XIV is known for its grandeur, Louis XV for its originality and Louis XVI for its sim-

Considered individually, each serves but as a magnificent monument to the period which fostered it; studied collectively, they embody every element desirable in treating present-day interiors.

In the one is found the regal splendor of Baroque classicism-in the second, the fire, inspiration and enthusiasm of romantic influences and in the last, a calm simplicity directly traceable to the motifs of ancient Pompeii.

Beauty alone may present a very stiff and formal countenance—the romantic, a most bizarre manner-simplicity an appearance of modest ugliness. It is the proper blending of these elements into a harmonious whole which distinguishes Valiant decorated homes.

Whether your plans for autumn call for the decoration and furnishing of a corner, a room, or your entire home, Valiant decorators will be glad to assist you in creating the effect you desire.

Valiant's fall showings (most moderately priced) and the sincere cordiality of their welcome will truly inspire you on the occasion of your next visit.

FURNITURE—DECORATIONS "Valiant Service is Cordial-Valiant Prices are Moderate"

The ESTEY, Judged Solely by Its Musical Qualities

Quite often you will have occasion to be proud of your piano if it can be praised solely on the strength of its musical qualities.

Often some one comes to your home who has no eye for the beauties of architectural lines or depth of finish, but who measures a piano's merits from a musical standpoint

To musicians like these the ESTEY plane is a source of pride and joy. Once seated at its keys, they are inspired to play and play in order to draw upon its inexhaustible beauties of tone coloring and blending. Its smooth and even touch, its depth and richness of tone, make the ESTEY a musician's piano-qualities you should not overlook when selecting a piano that you expect to keep as a lifelong companion.

Welte-Mignon Reproducing Plance, Player-Plance and Estey Organs. Victor Victorlas, Sonora Talking Machines, Chency Art Phonographs and Victor Records.

ESTEY—best-known musical name in the world. More than half a million planes and organs have been made and are in use in every country on the globe. SUCH A RECORD INSPIRES CONFIDENCE

ESTEY COMPANY ESTEY HALL 17th and Walnut Streets

